PAZO DA TORRE

ABOUT PAZO DA TORRE ALBARIÑO

Pazo da Torre is produced by Bodega Bouza do Rei, a pioneering winery within the Rías Baixas Denomination of Origin since 1983. With decades of experience and continuous growth, the winery now manages around 200 hectares of vineyards and produces high-quality Albariño for international markets.

Inspired by traditional Galician “pazos”, symbols of heritage and elegance, this wine reflects the identity of the Salnés Valley and the Atlantic character that defines the region. Pazo da Torre is a classic Albariño focused on purity, freshness, and balance, offering an authentic expression of Galicia’s most emblematic white grape.

TASTING NOTES

Straw-yellow with a shining appearance, a fragrant, very intense bouquet. Full of floral and fruity undertones of a great subtlety. Smooth tasting filled with pleasant hints. Flavourful with a fruity sensation. A persistent, fine aftertaste.

SOIL

The vineyards are located in the Salnés Valley, in Rías Baixas, near the Atlantic coast. This area benefits from a mild, humid climate with abundant rainfall and cooling ocean breezes that help preserve acidity and freshness in the grapes. The soils are predominantly granitic, sandy, and well-drained, rich in organic matter and slightly acidic, creating ideal conditions for cultivating Albariño with pronounced aromatics, freshness, and a distinctive mineral character.

WINEMAKING

Grapes are carefully harvested and gently pressed to preserve their aromatic intensity and freshness. Fermentation takes place in stainless steel tanks at controlled temperatures to ensure purity and balance. The wine is bottled young, maintaining its vibrant, fresh, and expressive style typical of Rías Baixas Albariño.
